

Barbara Milman: Went to Harvard and Columbia Law, is now an artist in the San Francisco Bay area. Barbara Milman creates handmade fine art prints and artist's books. For many years much of her art has been about climate change. Previously she created a large body of work about the Holocaust. Her work has been exhibited nationally and internationally, has won many awards, and is included in many museum, university, and other public collections. She lives and works in the San Francisco Bay Area. Her URL is <http://barbaramilman.com>.