

From our classmate, John Lobell. Classmates may remember my parents, Nat and Griselda, who were authors.

"Growing Up In Ridgewood, Queens, 1920 to 1932," by my mother, Griselda Holzinger Lobell, was just published. The book is on Amazon at: https://www.amazon.com/Growing-Ridgewood-Queens-1920-1932/dp/1076444261/ref=sr_1_1?keywords=Griselda+lobell&qid=1566311627&s=gateway&sr=8-1

The book is rich with details of the life of the times, and includes family trees, maps, and apartment plans.

Griselda's book was preceded by that of her husband: "Of Things That Used To Be: A Childhood on Fox Street in the Bronx in the Early Twentieth Century" by

Nathan D. Lobell. The book is available on Amazon at: https://www.amazon.com/s?k=Nathan+D.+Lobell&ref=nb_sb_noss

John Lobell

646-734-2860

JohnLobell@mac.com

JohnLobell.com